

therapeutic boarding school

fact sheet

Established: Evangelhouse was established in 1995.

Gender: Girls only.

Ages: 6th through 12th grades.

Capacity: 16 students.

Length of Stay: 12 months or longer.

Enrollment: Year-round open admissions.

Availability: We have openings available immediately.

Philosophy: We provide licensed, clinical treatment in a non-denominational Christian environment.

Parent Involvement: Parents visit or call anytime but suggested structure is provided by therapeutic stages. Stages also guide weekly scheduled phone calls letters and emails.

State licensure: Louisiana Department of Education, non-public schools, alternative school division.

Membership: National Association of Therapeutic Schools and Programs since 2004.

Tuition: Monthly tuition is $8,400. Call us for current rates and offers.

Other Fees: Admission fee, academic & enrichment fee along with alumni fee are due upon enrollment.

Application fee: None.

Financial aid: Call us for current offers.

Health Insurance: Up to 65% of tuition may be eligible for health insurance reimbursement.

Academics: Accredited college preparatory, general or vocational high school diploma options.

Academic accreditation: ECA is approved by the Louisiana Department of Education, Non-public schools alternative school division. Additionally, academic coursework completed at ECA may be eligible for multiple accrediting bodies, depending on the students' circumstances and academic standing.

Behavioral Accreditation: Evangelhouse is accredited by the Joint Commission Behavioral Health Program.

Staffing: The Evangelhouse treatment team is led by licensed clinicians with ministry experience. All staff have college degrees and professional credentials in addition to ministry experience.

Therapy: Three licensed Christian clinicians on staff provide seven hours per week of direct therapy and oversee the therapeutic program culture.

Psychiatrist: Adolescent specialist psychiatrist.

Medications: Psychiatric medication management services are provided.

Psychologist: Consulting outpatient neuro-psychologist.

Psychological testing: Full battery of psychological testing available.

Individual therapy: Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT) and EMDR. Solution-focused, systems theory based milieu therapy.

Family therapy: Collaborate model structural therapy, strategic therapy and Christian parent coaching.

Group therapy: Positive peer culture, character development, leadership development, DBT skills group and process therapy.

Therapeutic Program: Christian focused psychological stages of change model, entitled the LifeLeaf™ treatment model.

Church attendance: All students attend off campus Sunday morning worship service and Thursday evening youth group meeting. Catholic families may elect an additional Tuesday evening Mass.

Profile Student: Please view our criteria web page.

Evangelhouse Christian Academy does not discriminate on the basis of race, nationality or ethnic origin in administration of its admission policies, education policies, or administered services.

Tours: Parent tours are welcome after completing the admission assessment. Referring professionals are welcome anytime. Appointments are preferred.